

Pierre Jallow

WeBridge Oy, Remode Oy, HNMKY – Finland

I am a market-entry, wellbeing, and culture expert with over 15 years of project management experience, 13 years of professional basketball career, and more than 12 years of teaching intercultural competence. I am a CEO at WeBridge Oy, co-founder of Remode Oy and a head trainer at MOK Intercultural Competence Training by Helsinki NMKY.

I create solutions that deliver meaningful and enduring impact through European and African projects and initiatives.

As someone who has lived, studied and worked in many countries, the immigrant mentality of hard but smart work is something I pride myself in.

Universities: William Jewell College (USA) Bachelors; HAMK (Finland) Masters in Business Management & Entrepreneurship; Intercultural Development Inventory Expert

My Topic for the 18th International Teaching Week:
