

Klejda Tani

Sports University of Tirana
ALBANIA

Klejda is a senior lecturer in Sports University of Tirana in Albania. She is the Head of the Rehabilitation Department in the Faculty of Rehabilitation Sciences, in SUT. Her interests are the training of young physiotherapists with the latest information in the clinical field, the promotion of physiotherapy in Albania and the improvement of physiotherapy in the academic and scientific direction.

She studied physiotherapy in the Czech Republic, Charles University and has 12 years of experience in academic field. She has 14 years of clinical physiotherapy experience and she is the owner of Treka Fizio clinics and training academy in Tirana Albania. In her leisure time she likes to exercise, spend time with her family, travel abroad and experience new cultures and gastronomy.

My Topics for the 24th International Teaching Week:

- 1) How to Use STECCO Facial Manipulation in Prevention and Rrehabilitation of Chronic Sport Injuries and Acute Sport Injuries
- 2) Dynamic Neuromuscular Stabilization Approach in Cervical and Shoulder Pain - theoretical/practical lecture