Registration
until 1st May 2026

„TEACHING for the FUTURE“ International Summer School Augsburg, 21st-25th September 2026

Participants

The International Summer School is for future teachers. So it is targeted for motivated Teacher Education students (State exam, Bachelor, Master) from the international A.LEAP network.

Interdisciplinarity

There are workshops planned for students of Civic Education, English Language Education, Geography Education, German Language Education, History Education, Physics Education, Physical Education and Religious Education (catholic).

Language

The Summer School is in English language. It is expected that the participants have a sufficient command of the English language to actively participate in the discussions and to present their own work in English.

Accommodation

Participants will be accommodated at the Augsburg Youth Hostel in Augsburg city center (double rooms with breakfast). The university can be reached in about 15 minutes by public transport.

Expenses

No participation fees. The participants will receive a flat-rate allowance of at least €330. Approximately €170 of this amount is allocated for accommodation. Meals and drinks will be provided according to the programme.

Registration

Interested students should register to participate by 1st May 2026. As the number of participants is limited, we recommend an early application. If your registration is accepted we will inform you about the next step.
