

SIMA ZACH

The Academic College at Wingate, Israel

Dr. Zach is the Head of the School of Education at the Academic College at Wingate and also the Director of the Teacher Education Programme. She is a graduate of the College and has been with the faculty since 1984. She earned her Ph.D. from Temple University, Philadelphia, specializing in sport psychology. Her research interests are in sport psychology, physical education psychology, and psychology of leisure-time physical activity.

The 10th ITW topics:

- 1) Motivation for participation in leisure time physical activity
- 2) Motivational climate in physical education