

Noa Choresh

The Academic College at Wingate, ISRAEL

Noa is a former gymnast in artistic gymnastics and nowadays she is an athlete focusing on distance running (she is attending Sportisimo Prague Half Marathon held on April 6, 2019). She used to be a gymnastics coach and a physical education teacher, and after that, she trained P.E teachers at The Academic College at Wingate. Meanwhile she has specialized in learning technologies. She served as a national coordinator in the national program for adapting the education system to the 21st century at the Israeli ministry of education, specifically led professional development of teachers and teacher trainers through ICT and collaborative learning.

Her main research field is learning technologies, specially self-regulated learning through ICT, including MOOC, PBL projects and integrating ICT in physical education and sports. She would like to present their program for acquiring computer skills for pre-serviced P.E teachers in an innovative online self-directed and self-paced course and online course for adaptive physical education based on interactive videos, both evidence based by a study they conducted, and a digital catalogue for learning materials for P.E students and teachers.

Topic for the 14th International Teaching Week:

Relationships between Learning Tools and Academic Achievements in Acquiring Computer Skills in Self-directed Learning in High Education