

Gord Inglis

Camosun College – Victoria, Canada

Gord Inglis is a professional educator, tennis instructor, volleyball coach and sport enthusiast. Currently, Gord is Chair of the Bachelor of Sport & Fitness Leadership Degree program and the Sport Management Degree program at Camosun College in Victoria, Canada. He previously served as Chairperson of the Kinesiology & Sport Studies program at Red Deer College in Alberta.

Gord's areas of instructional expertise include sport biomechanics, coaching, leadership & instruction, organizational behaviour in sport, social processes in sport & fitness, tennis and volleyball, Gord holds a Master's of Science degree in Physical Education from Washington State University.

Topics for the 15th International Teaching Week:

- 1. The Power of Sport: Foundations & Developments of Sport & Physical Activity in Canada
- 2. The Game of Pickleball – The New Racquet Sport