

Sigalit Dassa-Shlomov

The Academic College at Wingate – Israel

Sigalit's B.ed, M.A and Ph.D are at Physical Education and education. She is a lecturer at Wingate College since 1991, working at the faculty of continuing education program, at the faculty of physical education and at the school of Osteopathy.

Since 2012, she is a professional manager of the course: "rehabilitation coaches".

Her main interests are at the field of sport-therapy, motor learning, psychomotor development, and physical activity for people with muscle-skeletal disorder and chronic diseases.

Topics for the 15th International Teaching Week:

- 1. Don't Think Muscle, Think Movement: Movement According to the Neuro-Developmental Approach