

4st ITW - Teachers and their topics

Name	Photo	Institution/Country	Teaching topics
Andrea Brunelli		Verona Italy	<ol style="list-style-type: none"> <li>1. The power of Sport to promote Development and Peace: implementing physical activity projects in disadvantage communities</li> <li>2. Aware and effective use of games and physical activities to promote behavioural changes</li> </ol>
Cora Burnett		Johannesburg Republic of South Africa	<ol style="list-style-type: none"> <li>1. Sport for Development research in Africa - reflections on 'uptake', 'impact' and 'agency'</li> <li>2. Sport for Development methodology that 'works' in different development settings (for Ph.D. students)</li> </ol>
Jenna-Eve Fern		Brisbane Australia	The Life of an Erythrocyte
Marianne Meier		Geneve Switzerland	<ol style="list-style-type: none"> <li>1. Kicking like a Girl? Insights on Gender, Sport and Development</li> <li>2. How do you know it is working? Monitoring and Evaluation of 'Sport and Development' Programmes</li> </ol>
Maria de Rato Barrio		Madrid Spain	<ol style="list-style-type: none"> <li>1. Physical Activity and Sport as a tool to promote Interculturalism in post-war contexts. Evaluation of a Co-operation for development project in Guatemala (Central America)</li> <li>2. Research design and criteria to assess trustworthiness in qualitative research (for Ph.D. students)</li> </ol>

Christoph Schwager		Zürich Switzerland	1. Using Sport &amp; Games as a Tool in Developing Countries as a Post-disaster Intervention or in fragile Contexts 2. Sport + games in post-disaster intervention; Introduction into the work of sport in developing countries
Gary Stidder		Brighton England	1. Football 4 Peace International/ Teaching and Playing Sport for Conflict Resolution and Co-Existence