

Lycée Ker Anna

Department/Division: Lycée Ker Anna

Ker Anna school is located in Kervignac, a small town 15 km from Lorient on the south sea coast of Brittany. The school takes 370 pupils, mostly girls, and employs 49 full time staff (26 teachers). It teaches 13-19 year olds mostly for health and social care: - (13-15 year olds) in 2 years for the Brevet des Collèges - (15-17 year olds) in 2 years for the CAP "Services in Rural Areas" - 15-18 year olds) in 3 years for the Bac Professionnel "Services to People" It hosts a class of 8 pupils with special needs and a class of 14 adults who apply to sit selection examinations. We have strong links with local employers, pupils do placement in kindergardens, elderly homes, hospitals, primary schools of the area. Pupils also carry out projects with local institutions or firms. Ker Anna aims to help young people to experience projects abroad. Each year, we do an exchange with a German vocational school of Görlitz. The pupils in both schools are only taught English, so the communication language is English. Some pupils take the opportunity of a work placement in Germany and we intend to offer more opportunities in other European countries. Ker Anna school is a boarding school, it accomodates 46 pupils in new buildings. Particular attention is paid to the life in the boarding school, after-school activities are organised. On lunch time, volunteers can take part in activities such as academic support sessions, board games, theatre sessions.
