

INTERNATIONAL TEACHING WEEK

Dancing

Marta Bobo Arce

Universidade da Coruña
SPAIN

Marta holds a PhD in Physical Education and is a full professor at the University of A Coruña, Galicia, Spain. She works at the Faculty of Sports Sciences and Physical Education on the Oleiros Campus and teaches body expression and dance, practicums, and final degree projects. One of her lines of research studies performance indicators in artistic sports (rhythmic gymnastics) and dance related to education, gender and quality of life. She is an expert at Rhythmic Gymnastics for the International Gymnastics Federation (FIG), Olympic gymnast in JJOO 1984, International judge and coach. She is member of the FIG Education Commission and Academy expert. In her leisure time, she likes to exercise, dance, read and listen to music, mostly to spend time with her family by the beach, travel and go out for tapas with friends.

IDW Topics:

- 1 Dressing up the movement: playing with the aesthetics of dance
- 2 Space, Rhythm and Dynamics: the Subjective Dimensions of Performance

Faculty of Physical Culture

Palacký University
Olomouc