

Steve Holly

AdaptABLE Outdoors

CANADA

Steve is the Co-Founder and Executive Director of AdaptABLE Outdoors, an award-winning adaptive sports charity in Southwestern Alberta, that serves people of all ages living with physical & cognitive disabilities.

Steve has utilized his diverse background in Retail Management, Wildlife Biology, Law Enforcement & Mountain Rescue, to create fully inclusive outdoor adaptive sport programs. He has developed new adaptive hiking and paddling programs in the region, created a truly unique adaptive shore fishing program & innovated the only fully inclusive adaptive kayak fishing program in Canada.

In his spare time Steve enjoys escaping to remote areas of the Rocky Mountains, hiking, kayaking, fishing and hunting.

My Topics for the 26th International Teaching Week:

- 1) Adapting the Outdoors - Starting a multi-sport, multi-disability Adaptive Sports and Recreation Charity.
- 2) Getting people hooked! Adaptive Shore Fishing and Kayak Fishing.
- 3) Strategies to Include Individuals with Disabilities in Sport and Recreation.